The Hajj

The Hajj is a pilgrimage Muslims take to Mecca. A pilgrimage is a special journey. Muslims go on this pilgrimage to remember Muhammad's journey from Medina to Mecca.

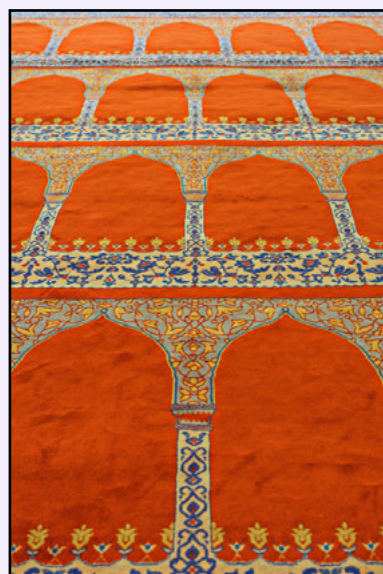

When on this pilgrimage all Muslims are equal. They all wear the same white clothes so there is no way to tell if they are wealthy or important. Their white clothes are called Ihram.

Mecca is a city in Saudi Arabia. Muhammad was born there. It is such a special place for Muslims that non-Muslims are not allowed to go there.

When Muslims arrive in Mecca they walk seven times around the Kaaba. The Kaaba is a black cube-shaped stone shrine. It marks the centre of the Muslim world. Each time they walk around it they have to kiss or point to it.
