

Tales on Moon Lane

London Independent Bookshop of the Year 2017

Tales on Moon Lane are thrilled to announce brilliant local author Inky Willis will be coming to Ramsgate Arts Primary School on Wednesday 4th March to talk about her wonderful book Scribble Witch: Notes in Class.

When Molly's best friend announces that she's moving to a new school, a blue Wednesday becomes the Worst Wednesday Ever. That is until some unexpected magic brightens up Molly's day. Notes, a tiny paper witch who has been lurking in a pen pot, springs to life - and into action! Some of the things Notes does are absolutely NOT helpful and get Molly into trouble with her grouchy teacher. But it's surprising what one tiny witch, armed with nothing more than a pencil, can achieve before the bell for home time rings...

Inky Willis grew up in Hastings, spending much of her childhood on the beach or playing on the rocks around Hastings Castle. Inky studied fine art at Reading University and then went to the Royal College of Art, where she specialised in children's book illustration. Inky now lives in Ramsgate, where she spends many happy hours beachcombing with her kids.

Scribble Witch* will be on sale after the event, and Inky will be happy to sign pupils' copies.

If you would like to pre-order a copy of the book, please return your completed form with the correct money, and indicate in the box below how many copies you would like. Orders need to be returned to school by Friday the 28th of February to guarantee a copy.
