

Joseph's Coat

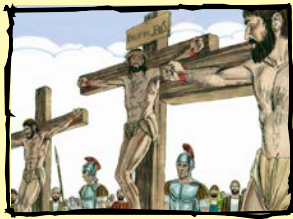

Noah's Ark

The Birth of Jesus

The Easter Story

Jonah and the Whale

David and Goliath

The world has become a wicked place. The people go against God and live as they please. When God decides to send a devastating flood to wipe out the evil from the Earth, it is up to one man and his family to gather two of each animal and board an ark before the floods arrive. Can they build the ark in time? Can they rescue the animals? Will they ever find land again, or even survive the flood? Find out in this tale of courage, faith and hope.

Nineveh has become a city of sin. The people drink, swear, gamble and worship idols. When God chooses a messenger to tell the people of Nineveh that they will be punished if they don't start living better lives, instead of obeying, the messenger jumps on a ship and flees in the opposite direction! But there is no hiding from God. After a violent storm threatens to shipwreck the crew, the messenger (who realises the storm is sent from God) jumps overboard only to be swallowed by a huge fish. Will he escape his watery fate? And will he make it to Nineveh to deliver God's message?

When a pregnant woman and her fiancé travel to Bethlehem for the census, no one knew that the events in one lowly stable would change the lives of so many people. A baby born in a stable and laid in a manger is visited by shepherds and wise men. Why did they come to see this child? What makes him so special? Find out as you read this story that marks the beginning of the most famous life in history.

When a Philistine soldier (who happens to be an enormous giant) boasts that he can beat any Israelite soldier brave enough to fight him, the whole Israelite army is terrified. However, a challenger comes in a most unlikely form when a small shepherd boy with a big faith in God faces the giant with only a slingshot and five smooth stones. Will he defeat the boastful giant or will the giant use his strength and weight to crush this brave shepherd boy? Find out for yourself as you read this astonishing story.

When a man travels into Jerusalem with his friends, he is greeted by welcoming crowds waving palm leaves and shouting his praises. However, what starts as a happy journey soon turns into something far less joyous when the man is betrayed by one of his friends and arrested by Roman soldiers. A series of events leads to his brutal crucifixion but is this the end of the story? Find out as some unexpected events lead to a surprising reappearance...

Having a lot of brothers is not always easy, especially when you are your father's favourite son. Being given gifts, especially a brightly coloured coat, spells disaster for one brother as sibling rivalry and some mysterious dreams lead to slavery, jail and dishonour. However, God has a plan for this dream interpreter which leads to a meeting with Pharaoh and a surprising turn in fortune which eventually paves the way for a family reunion...

Joseph's Coat

Noah's Ark

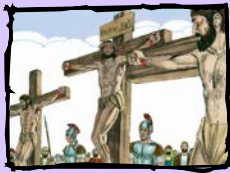

The Birth of Jesus

Feeding Five Thousand

The Easter Story

Jonah and the Whale

David and Goliath

The Exodus

The world has become a wicked place. The people go against God and live as they please. When God decides to send a devastating flood to wipe out the evil from the Earth, it is up to one man and his family to gather two of each animal and board an ark before the floods arrive. Can they build the ark in time? Can they rescue the animals? Will they ever find land again, or even survive the flood? Find out in this tale of courage, faith and hope.

Nineveh has become a city of sin. The people drink, swear, gamble and worship idols. When God chooses a messenger to tell the people of Nineveh that they will be punished if they don't start living better lives, instead of obeying, the messenger jumps on a ship and flees in the opposite direction! But there is no hiding from God. After a violent storm threatens to shipwreck the crew, the messenger (who realises the storm is sent from God) jumps overboard only to be swallowed by a huge fish. Will he escape his watery fate? And will he make it to Nineveh to deliver God's message?

When the Israelites are slaves in Egypt, Pharaoh does not want to set them free. He is enjoying his pyramid-makers too much. However, God has a plan to lead them out of slavery and into freedom. Read about Moses, the ten plagues of Egypt (including locusts, boils and rivers of blood) and the parting of the Red Sea in this epic story of promise, trust, belief and redemption.

When a pregnant woman and her fiancé travel to Bethlehem for the census, no one knew that the events in one lowly stable would change the lives of so many people. A baby born in a stable and laid in a manger is visited by shepherds and wise men. Why did they come to see this child? What makes him so special? Find out as you read this story that marks the beginning of the most famous life in history.

When a Philistine soldier (who happens to be an enormous giant) boasts that he can beat any Israelite soldier brave enough to fight him, the whole Israelite army is terrified. However, a challenger comes in a most unlikely form when a small shepherd boy with a big faith in God faces the giant with only a slingshot and five smooth stones. Will he defeat the boastful giant or will the giant use his strength and weight to crush this brave shepherd boy? Find out for yourself as you read this astonishing story.

How much food do you think you would need to buy if you were preparing a meal for five thousand people? Quite a lot? What if you had just five loaves of bread and two fish? Find out how Jesus and his disciples fed a tired and hungry crowd of thousands in this miraculous story.

Having a lot of brothers is not always easy, especially when you are your father's favourite son. Being given gifts, especially a brightly coloured coat, spells disaster for one brother as sibling rivalry and some mysterious dreams lead to slavery, jail and dishonour. However, God has a plan for this dream interpreter which leads to a meeting with Pharaoh and a surprising turn in fortune which eventually paves the way for a family reunion...

When a man travels into Jerusalem with his friends, he is greeted by welcoming crowds waving palm leaves and shouting his praises. However, what starts as a happy journey soon turns into something far less joyous when the man is betrayed by one of his friends and arrested by Roman soldiers. A series of events leads to his brutal crucifixion but is this the end of the story? Find out as some unexpected events lead to a surprising reappearance...

Name: _____

Date: _____

Choose three of these Bible stories and write a blurb for each one. Remember, a blurb should encourage the reader to pick up and read the story!

Joseph's Coat

Noah's Ark

The Birth of Jesus

Feeding Five Thousand

The Easter Story

Jonah and the Whale

David and Goliath

The Exodus

Story Title:

Story Title:

Story Title:

Name: _____ Date: _____

Choose a Bible story you are familiar with and answer the questions about it below.

What would you call this story?

List the main characters of the story:

What happens in the story? What are the main events?

What do you think the main messages of this story are? Why do you think it teaches Christians?

Draw an illustration of your favourite part of the story:

Joseph's Coat

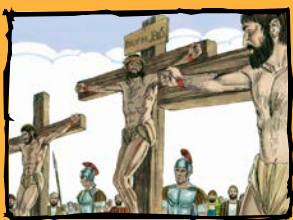

Noah's Ark

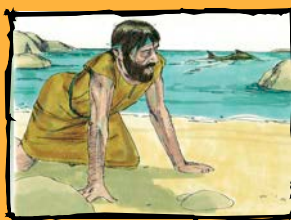

The Birth of Jesus

The Easter Story

Jonah and the Whale

David and Goliath

The Creation Story

The Exodus

Feeding Five Thousand

Joseph's Coat

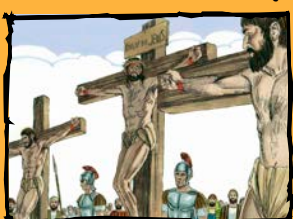

Noah's Ark

The Birth of Jesus

The Easter Story

Jonah and the Whale

David and Goliath

The Creation Story

The Exodus

Feeding Five Thousand

