How do most Muslims celebrate Islamic New Year?

The Prophet Muhammad and the Spider's Web.

A long time ago, Prophet Muhammad and Abu Bakr were travelling to Medina.
Muhammad had been invited
there because he was wise and followed Allah.

Muhammad and Abu Bakr heard that some people from Mecca were following them and wanted to harm them.

Muhammad and Abu Bakr became tired during their journey. They decided to shelter in the Cave of Thawr. While the men from Mecca travelled closer and closer to the cave, a little spider began to spin a web across the entrance to the cave.

When the men arrived at the cave they saw the spider's web blocking the entrance. They decided Muhammad and Abu Bakr were not in there and they carried on walking.

Muhammad and Abu Bakr were safe! They left the cave and continued on their journey to Medina, where they were welcomed by the people.

The Prophet Muhammad and the Spider's Web.

A long time ago, Prophet Muhammad and Abu Bakr were travelling to Medina.

Muhammad had been invited to Medina because he was wise and followed Allah. Muhammad and Abu Bakr heard that some people from Mecca were following them and wanted to harm them.

Muhammad and Abu Bakr needed somewhere to hide from the people following them. They spotted a cave and decided to shelter in it. The cave was called the Cave of Thawr.

As they hid in the cave the men from Mecca travelled closer and closer to them.

Soon a little spider began to quickly spin a web across the entrance to the cave.

When the men arrived at the cave they saw the spider's web blocking the entrance.

They decided Muhammad and Abu Bakr could not be in the cave and they carried on walking.

Muhammad and Abu Bakr were safe! They left the cave and continued on their journey to Medina.

Eventually they arrived in Medina and they were welcomed by the people.
