THE FIVE PILLARS OF ISLAM.

Shahadah

The Shahadah is the first of the five pillars. The Shahadah is these words: "There is no God but Allah and Muhammed is his messenger." All Muslims must believe this phrase.

Salat

Salat is the second pillar and means to perform prayers five times a day. Each prayer must be spoken at the right time of the day, before sunrise, midday, the afternoon, after sunset and before midnight.

Zakat

Zakat is the third pillar and means to give money to the needy. Muslims are required to give 2.5% of their yearly income to the poor and needy people. This helps Muslims free themselves from greed and the love of money.

Sawm

Sawm is the fourth pillar of Islam and means fasting. Muslims fast for one month of the year. They give up food and drink in the daylight hours and feast when the sun goes down. Fasting teaches Muslims to appreciate God and learn self-discipline.

Hajj

The Hajj is a journey to a place called Mecca in Saudi Arabia. It is a ritual that strengthens the bonds of Islamic sisterhood and brotherhood. Muslims must journey there once in their life if they are able to.
