

Ben is a doctor. It is nearly time for him to go home. Someone comes to see him but Ben doesn't want to see any more patients today so he pretends he is too busy to see them and sends them away.

Was this the right thing to do?

Kelly is a doctor. One of her patients is not feeling very well. Kelly has tried her best to work out what is wrong, but she has run out of ideas. She decides to find another doctor that might be able to help her patient.

Was this the right thing to do?

Chris is a police officer. He gets a phone call saying someone is in trouble. He is about to get in his car when realises he has a flat tyre. Chris decides not to tell anyone he works with and tries to fix the tyre himself.

Was this the right thing to do?

Anila is a police officer. She thinks she knows who stole something but she doesn't have any evidence. She decides to get one of her friends to say they saw the person stealing, even though they didn't.

Was this the right thing to do?

Chen is working on his homework while watching the TV. His sister realises he hasn't done very much so she says he should turn the TV off. Chen says he can concentrate just fine with the TV on.

Was this the right thing to do?

Kala is a teacher. One of her pupils isn't trying their best. Kala has spoken to them a lot about their work, but she decides this time to say nothing and pretend she hasn't noticed the quality of their work.

Was this the right thing to do?

Muhammed is a doctor. He has seen lots of patients today. Just as the surgery is closing someone asks for his help. He doesn't want to see any more patients. It is time for him to go home.

What should Muhammed do?
Do you think he is working hard?

Lola is a doctor. One of her patients is not feeling very well. Lola isn't sure what is wrong with her, but she doesn't want her patient to worry.

What should Lola do?
Why might it be difficult for her to be honest?

Kayden is a police officer. He gets a phone call saying someone is in trouble. He is about to get in his car when realises he has lost his car keys. This means he is going to be very delayed.

What should Kayden do?
Why might it be difficult for him to be honest?

Olivia is a police officer. She is investigating a robbery. She thinks she knows who the thief was but she doesn't have any evidence. Olivia's friend has said she saw the person stealing, even though she didn't.

What should Olivia do?
Why might it be difficult for her to be honest?

Xavier didn't finish his homework last night. He tried to do it while watching TV and kept being distracted. His teacher has asked him to hand it in.

What should Xavier do?
Do you think he worked hard?
Why might it be difficult for him to be honest?

Aleena is about to sit a spelling test. Her friend wants to copy her work because she didn't learnt the spellings. Aleena's friend promises she will only do it this once.

What should Aleena do?
Do you think they are working hard?
Why might it be difficult for her to be honest?

Malachi has been asked to work with some younger children for five minutes every day to help them with their reading. He would rather spend the time playing with his friends.

What should Malachi do?
Do you think he is working hard?

Hafsa is finding her homework difficult. Her teacher has suggested she comes to the classroom after eating her lunch for some extra help. Hafsa wants to go outside at the same time as her friends.

What should Hafsa do?
Do you think she is working hard?

Name: _____ Date: _____

Read each scenario and then see if you can answer the questions. Make sure you include how you know in each of your answers.

Umar is finding her maths work difficult. Her teacher tells her to come back to the classroom after she eats her lunch, so she can get some extra help. Umar wants to play outside with her friends so she pretends she forgot to go.

Is Umar working hard?

---

---

---

Is Umar living honestly?

---

---

---

Arjun has discovered that his friend stole some sweets from the local shop. His friend has said he will pay for them later. He promises he won't do it again and gives Arjun half of the sweets. Arjun eats the sweets and decides not to tell a grown-up.

Is Arjun living honestly?

---

---

---

Is Arjun's friend living honestly?

---

---

---

Max enjoys playing computer games and watching TV. He often stays up late to do this. Max has started yawning in class and falling behind. His teacher is worried about him. When his teacher asks why he is so tired Max shrugs his shoulders.

Is Max working hard?

---

---

---

Is Max living honestly?

---

---

---

My name is _____

I promise to work hard at _____

I am going to do this by _____

_____

My name is _____

I promise to work hard at _____

I am going to do this by _____

_____