

Story map example. Use a whole page or sheet, draw a curved line or arrows showing the progression of the story. Along the line add in details (pictures and words) about what happens. Remember a story has a beginning, middle and end (and lots that happens in between)

