Friday 10th July

Dear Parents and Carers of Team Spurrier,

Your class teacher for next year will be Miss O’Flaherty, she will be making a short welcome video which she will be recording when she is in school next week. Miss Taft will be also joining the Team in Year 1 and she has recorded a short video for the children below.

Miss O’Flaherty will be popping in to say hello to those children in Year 1 who are in school, the rest of her class she will be looking forward to seeing in September.

A new class blog page will be set up before 1st September with a new Padlet, this will be a platform for the children to ask any questions or share any concerns they may have before starting school on the 3rd September. It will also be an area to post any home learning the new class teacher has set.

New DFE guidance was published last week which outlines arrangement for full opening of schools. This will take some considerable planning but I can tell you that children will be going straight up to their new classes with their new teachers. Old teachers will be able to pop by to see the children but I will be working on a “bubble” model to limit contact between individuals. I will of course, be in touch towards the end of the summer holidays to confirm all of our arrangements.

Kind regards

Mr Budge

Head of School
