

What is the Bible and why is it important for Christians?

Learning Objective:

To learn about what makes a book special to different people.

Do you have any books at home that are very special to you or to other people in your family?

Why are they special?

Today we will be creating our own special book that is made up of songs, stories, prayers or rules that are important to us, as well as songs, stories, prayers and rules from the Bible that are important to Christians.

You could write a short story of an extract from a story that is special to you.

You could write a prayer to thank God for something or someone special in your life.

You could write the lyrics from a song that is important to you.

You could write out a set of rules that are important, such as school rules.
