

Forgotten Flora

Beginning

Jenny is at the train station in London waiting to go to the seaside. Jenny is with her family and she has her favourite doll Flora with her. They get a drink and a snack in the café at the station and think about the trip. Suddenly they hear the whistle and run to the platform!

Middle

Luckily they catch the train in time. Soon Jenny looks out of the window. She reaches for her rucksack to get Flora and she's not there! Her stomach leaps with worry! She searches everywhere and so do all her family. They ask the ticket inspector but no luck. Jenny is very sad.

End

They have a lovely day at the seaside and do lots of fun things but Jenny is finding it really hard to enjoy her time without Flora. Finally they catch the train home and back in London they try once more to find her in the Lost Property office...and Jenny spots Flora there on the shelf!
