

A: These sentences have punctuation errors in them. Can you copy them out neatly, putting in the correct punctuation as you go?

1. christophe moved to this country from rwanda
2. he was really nervous for his first day at school
3. the name of his teacher was mrs finch.
4. christophes dad can speak english french and Kinyarwanda

B: Can you write out the following conversation using all of the correct speech punctuation?

Christophe

I really hate reading. Words shouldn't be written down!

Once you have learnt to read, I am sure you will feel differently.

Miss Finch

C: Choose a suitable adverb to fill in the gap to help create mood / feelings / atmosphere:

1. _____ , Christophe entered his new classroom.
2. Miss Finch _____ went over to check on the new boy.
3. _____ , Christophe told Miss Finch about his dad.